PAMELA WALSH GALLERY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bay & Borough

October 24 — December 5, 2026

540 Ramona Street
Palo Alto, CA

Palo Alto, CA - Pamela Walsh Gallery is pleased to present Bay & Borough, a group exhibition featuring contemporary artists whose paintings explore the urban landscape through the distinctive environments of San Francisco and New York. Rather than simply depicting the city, these artists respond to its energy and movement, transforming their experience of the metropolis into paintings. Opening October 24, 2026, with an Artist Reception from 5 to 7 pm, the exhibition will remain on view through December 5, 2026.

A city is more than its physical form. Architecture, light, and the rhythms of daily life shape the way a place is experienced and remembered. In Bay & Borough, the artists move beyond recognizable landmarks to explore the city as a source of visual language. Buildings, streets, light, and architectural structures provide the elements for composition, giving artists a way to explore line, shape, space, and rhythm.

Bringing together represented artists Andrew Faulkner, Larry Horowitz, and Carolyn Meyer with invited artists Lisa Breslow, Dmitri Cavander, and Jenny Wantuch, Bay & Borough considers the city not simply as a subject, but as a way to construct a painting. Familiar streets, buildings, and urban spaces become starting points for compositions shaped by each artist's approach. The resulting works may begin with recognizable places, but through composition, they transform the familiar into something newly seen.

Founded in 2019, Pamela Walsh Gallery is located in a historic 1929 Birge Clark-designed building in downtown Palo Alto. The gallery represents a diverse roster of contemporary and historic artists whose work reflects exceptional craftsmanship, innovation, and enduring artistic vision. A member of the San Francisco Art Dealers Association since 2021, the gallery is committed to fostering artistic development and long-term career growth. Pamela Walsh currently serves on SFADA's Board of Directors.

Bay & Borough will be on view from October 24 through December 5, 2026, at Pamela Walsh Gallery, 540 Ramona Street, Palo Alto, CA 94301. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday, 11 am to 6 pm. For more information, visit www.pamelawalshgallery.com or contact info@pamelawalshgallery.com.
